The Other Space was founded in 2019 by the team behind Illiterati books & coffee.

The opening exhibition was held with David Zimmerman.

The Other Space presents and promotes the work of emerging and established artists not only based in and around Dharamsala but from around the world.

The gallery features the work of the artists continuously in individual exhibitions.

The Other Space strives to gain a confidence for longstanding and continuous collaborations with it's artists and enrich the lives of its visitors.

It also has a co-work space for individuals or groups, where basic ammenties to run a efficient office is provided at a reasonable charge. The in-house cafe serves hot and cold beverages with fresh light snacks.
